Cayuga County COVID-19 Test Kit Distribution

Throughout the month of July, the Cayuga County Health Department distributed rapid COVID-19 antigen tests to several community partners. The tests that were distributed are the iHealth Rapid Antigen brand; they are packaged in a box of two tests per box and expire in the fall of 2022. The Federal Drug Administration (FDA) has extended the expiration dates of these at-home test kits, which has been updated on each box. For more information on the expiration date extension, you can go to the FDA's website: <https://www.fda.gov/medical-devices/coronavirus-covid-19-and-medical-devices/home-otc-covid-19-diagnostic-tests#list>

The following community partners have test kits available free to the public:
